- Requests should be accompanied by a letter from your employer where necessary
- Requests in the first two weeks of the school year and for early withdrawal before the end of the school year cannot be considered
- If a member of the family becomes sick during a holiday period and requires additional leave, this must be accompanied by a doctor's certificate from the country where the sickness occurred

In addition, leave may also be granted for other reasons, as listed below: -

- Leave for legal obligations, for example a visit to the IND (immigration), court appearance etc. –
- One day leave for religious festivals
- One day leave if a family is moving house
- One day leave for the wedding of close family relatives, additional days may be granted if the wedding is overseas
- Serious illness of close family relatives
- Death of a family relative (up to 4 days)
- Special wedding anniversaries of parents or grandparents (one day)
These anniversaries are: 60th, 50th, 40th, 25th or 12 ½.

The following conditions are not good reasons for leave and in normal circumstances will not be considered:
